Fair Housing Contact Service strives to prevent and eliminate housing discrimination and promote equal housing opportunity

Dear Friend of Fair Housing,

Fair Housing Contact Service (FHCS) is local non-profit civil rights advocacy organization. We offer many valuable services to our community including advocacy to address housing discrimination, education and assistance to handle home ownership matters, and information on tenant/landlord rights and responsibilities.

In the spirit of celebration for the 50th anniversary of the passage of the Fair Housing Act, FHCS invites you to celebrate along with us at our special event, "An Evening of Justice" on Thursday, April 19, 2018. During the event held at Guy's Party Center in Akron, we will be honoring the 2018 Friend of Fair Housing award recipient(s), as well as recognizing the accomplishments of FHCS over its 53 year history advocating for housing rights.

We would like to extend to you and your company the opportunity to participate in our celebration and support our activities by sponsoring us for our annual event. The included form may be used to select your sponsorship level.

During this event, FHCS will have auction items to bid on and raffle baskets to win with the purchase of raffle tickets. Donating an item for auction or a basket, is also a wonderful way to support our work. Popular items include, but are not limited to, local artwork (i.e. Don Drumm), event tickets, lotto trees, wine/alcohol assortments, electronics, getaways, unique experiences, signed sports memorabilia, etc. We have included a donation form for you to complete to submit an item.

We very much welcome support in this way from all types of businesses. All contributors' names will be mentioned and thanked in our program, as well as additional forms of recognition depending on the sponsorship level or donation value.

Should you have any questions associated with this request or our organization please do not hesitate to contact me. We hope that you will be able to support us in this way and we look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "TS", with a stylized flourish.

6 City, state, and ZIP code Akron, OH 44311
7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
